NOTES

- 1 As a member of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy or proxies to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at the AGM. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes. The right of a member of the Company to attend and vote at the AGM will be determined by reference to the register of members. A member must be registered on that register as the holder of ordinary shares by the close of business on 6 May 2024 in order to be entitled to attend and vote at the AGM as a member in respect of those shares. Reference in this note to the right to attend the meeting shall as regards attendance at the meeting in person be read subject to Note 3 below.
- 2 If your proxy is being appointed in relation to less than your full voting entitlement, please enter in the box next to the proxy's name the number of shares in relation to which they are authorised to act as your proxy. If this box is left blank, your proxy will be deemed to be authorised in respect of your full voting entitlement (or, if this proxy form has been issued in respect of a designated account for a member, the full voting entitlement for that designated account).
- 3 A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. To appoint as your proxy a person other than the Chairman of the meeting, insert their full name in the box. If you sign and return this proxy form with no name inserted in the box, the Chairman of the meeting will be deemed to be your proxy. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the meeting and are aware of your voting intentions. If you wish your proxy to make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint someone other than the Chairman and give them the relevant instructions directly.
- 4 You may appoint more than one proxy in relation to the meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached a different share or share. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one share. If you wish to appoint more than one proxy, you must complete and return a separate proxy form for each proxy. Additional proxy forms can be obtained by contacting the Company's registrar, Neville Registrars Limited, on 0121 585 1131 or you may photocopy this form for that person. Please indicate in the box next to the proxy holder's name the number of shares in relation to which the proxy is authorised to act as your proxy, ensuring the aggregate number of shares entered on all such proxy forms does not exceed your full voting entitlement. If the total number shares entered on all such proxy forms exceeds the total held by the member, all appointments may be held invalid. Please also indicate, by ticking the box provided, if the proxy appointment is one of multiple appointments being made. All forms must be signed and should be returned together in the same envelope.
- 5 Please indicate with an "X" how you wish your proxy to vote on each of the proposed resolutions. Full details of the resolutions together with explanatory notes are set out in the Notice of AGM. Unless otherwise instructed, a proxy may vote (or refrain from voting) on any resolution, and in respect of any other business which may properly come before the meeting, at his discretion. The "Vote Withheld" option enables you to instruct your proxy not to vote on any particular resolution. However, it should be noted that a vote withheld is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of the votes "For" or "Against" a resolution. If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion.
- 6 This proxy form must be signed and dated by you (or by your attorney duly authorised in writing). If the member is a corporation, the form must be executed under its common seal or as a deed or by a duly authorised attorney or by a duly authorised officer of the corporation. In the case of joint holders, the signature of any one holder will be sufficient, but the names of all joint holders should be stated. The vote of the senior joint holder (according to the order in which the names stand in the Company's register of members in respect of the holding) who tenders a vote in person or by proxy will be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the other joint holder(s). Any alteration made to this proxy form should be initialled.

 - completed and signed in accordance with these instructions;
 - sent or delivered (together with any power of attorney or other written authority under which it is executed or an office or notarially certified copy or a copy certified in accordance with the Powers of Attorney Act 1971 of such power or written authority) to Neville Registrars Limited, Neville House, Steelpark Road, Halesowen, West Midlands, B62 8HD; and
